

Erin Skelton

Assistant Head and Head of Sixth

Nottingham Girls' High School

Bringing her fabulous energy to every part of the Sixth Form, Erin cares for each of our Sixth Form girls to make sure they excel in their academic results and leave the school as happy and confident young women.

Joining NGHS as Head of Sixth Form in 2017, Erin is focused on leading a rich and holistic education. She delivers expert lessons and exam training to equip the girls to achieve excellent results and is also a passionate advocate for the wealth of enrichment opportunities available to them. Erin inspires the girls to grab opportunities with both hands, to extend themselves out of their comfort zones and to enter the world as confident, responsible, and empowered young women who will make a positive impact in the world.
