

Nadine Latte

Development Director

Bristol Grammar School

Nadine was one of the first Trustees of IDPE and in 2004 started her career as a Development Director in Scotland, working at Strathclyde University, Loretto, Erskine Stewarts' Melville and Morrison's Academy. She moved to the South West with her children in 2015 to head up the development team at Taunton School. Since 2021 she has led a new campaign for bursaries at Bristol Grammar School and is passionate about lifechanging opportunities afforded through education.
