

Dr Mark Fenton

Chief Executive

Grammar School Heads Association (GSHA)

Mark Fenton is Chief Executive of the Grammar School Heads Association which represents the heads of state funded selective schools in England. He was previously headmaster of two leading schools in the state and independent sectors, including 15 years at Dr Challoner's Grammar School in Amersham. He has been a National Leader of Education and holds a doctorate in Education Management.

