

Clare Bolton
Governor
The Manchester Grammar School

Clare Bolton is a Chartered Accountant and Chartered Tax Adviser. She joined PriceWaterhouseCoopers straight after university and remained there all her working life becoming partner in 1985. During her career, as well as dealing with a portfolio of international clients, she had a variety of roles including Business Team Leader, Regional Market Leader, Global Tax leader for the Retail and Consumer sector, member of UK Tax Leadership team, UK Inbound leader, member of Northern Leadership team and Global Relationship Partner on a number of key clients. She was also on the UK Supervisory Board and the Global Board of Partners.

She was a Non-Executive Director for seven years at North West Water through the transition to privatisation and becoming United Utilities PLC.

Clare has been a Governor at The Manchester Grammar School since 2013 and became Treasurer in 2016. She is also Governor and Treasurer at New Islington Free School. She has been involved with a number of health charities since her retirement from PwC in 2011.