

IDPE's three-point commitment to members

IDPE's vision is to enable all schools to develop a culture of giving. In response to your feedback, we have developed our commitment to you.

WHAT WE WILL DO

1. Provide access to schools' development best practice, support and training, through:

- ✓ More accessible online training and resources
- ✓ Offering further training, networking and peer-to-peer support at regional meetings and specialist forums
- ✓ Developing professional pathways in alumni relations, fundraising and external relations
- ✓ Creating bespoke qualifications in schools' development

2. Champion schools' development, through:

- ✓ Being the voice of development
- ✓ Strengthening our partnerships across the education, charitable and corporate sectors
- ✓ Celebrating your success

3. Help manage internal relationships and expectations of schools' development, through:

- ✓ Benchmarking to establish realistic expectations of development
- ✓ Collaborating with other professional organisations to keep senior leaders up to date with the latest trends and best practice in schools' development

We are committed to listening, responding and developing services to support you and your professional development.

Together we will advance development in schools and help you and your school to realise your goals.
