

Rebecca Ting
Director of Development and Alumni Relations
St Edward's Oxford

Rebecca was drawn into educational development whilst studying at Exeter College, Oxford, where she was an Annual Fund Telethon caller and intern. She spent two years in annual giving and alumni relations at St Edmund Hall College before coming to rest at St Edward's, Oxford. She has been heading up the Development and Alumni Relations Office there since 2009 including their 150th Anniversary celebrations in 2013, and is now preparing for another new capital campaign.

In her spare time, Rebecca has advised the Campaign Committee for the £2bn Oxford Thinking Campaign, developing a matched fund of £300,000 to encourage young alumni giving across the Oxford University colleges.

Rebecca holds a TA commission as a Captain, and enjoys skiing, rock climbing, baking and playing the clarinet in the School Concert Band.
