

Patrick Mulvihill

Development Director

Uppingham School

Patrick Mulvihill is a career fundraiser, having spent 25 years working in the charity and education sectors. His areas of experience and expertise include leading capital campaigns, major gift solicitation and stewardship, corporate fundraising and sponsorship, trust and grant applications, fundraising appeals, legacy gifts, events, telephone campaigns and international fundraising in China, Hong Kong, Russia, USA and Canada.

Patrick has been Development Director of Uppingham School since 2002 and Patrick's work has enabled the construction of a new music school, studio theatre, sports centre, science centre and a redeveloped arts centre, as well as developing an income stream for bursaries. In total more than £26m has been raised at Uppingham including the most successful appeal in the school's history – incorporating the six largest gifts ever given to Uppingham.