

Andrew Lyall

Head of Development

Gordonstoun School

Andrew Lyall, known to many as Macduff, is a former pupil of Gordonstoun. Returning to his alma mater as Housemaster of his old house after a degree at Heriot Watt and thirteen years at The Glasgow Academy as PE teacher, Head of Rugby and Cricket. After nine years as Housemaster, he took the initial step into development working part time alongside his teaching commitments. In the summer of 2019, he moved to working full time in development and stepped up to become Head of Development in August 2020.

