

Charlotte Dewhurst

Associate Director of Development

University of Oxford

Charlotte Dewhurst is Associate Director of Development within the University of Oxford's Central Development Office where her responsibilities include DARS (Development and Alumni Relations Systems), Marketing and Insights, and Gift Administration. Charlotte is also co-chair of Advancing Oxford, a team who bring together the over 500 staff working across Oxford to network and learn. Before joining Oxford, Charlotte worked for 15 years at the Scientific, Technical and Medical Publisher, Elsevier, in roles covering marketing strategy, communications and operations, as well as customer engagement, customer experience and business intelligence. Charlotte is a trustee of Oxford Youth Choirs of which she is also a founding member.

