

Elissa Thursfield

Head of Employment Law

Gamlins Law

Elissa is Head of Employment Law and a Director of leading North Wales firm in Gamlins Law. In 2020 she founded HR Anchor which she heads up as Managing Director alongside her role as a solicitor with Gamlins.

In addition to her professional roles, Elissa volunteers with Abersoch RNLI where she is a Helm, having been a volunteer crew member with the station for 15 years. Elissa has also served as a member of the elite RNLI Flood Rescue Team and was deployed to the Cumbria Floods in 2015.

In her role as Helm, Elissa is responsible for the lives of her crew on board the lifeboat and any person rescued on service. The role demands the ability to make decisions under pressure as well as leadership and strategic skills.

An accomplished public speaker, Elissa speaks on Employment Law issues as well as her experiences with the RNLI.

