

Kate Wallace

Alumni and Parent Engagement Officer

City of London School

Kate has worked in education since leaving the University of Nottingham in 2004. After ten years in domestic and international undergraduate student recruitment for the University of Nottingham and the University of Oxford, Kate joined the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) as Member Services Manager where she got a taste for alumni relations.

Kate joined City of London School in 2019 and has responsibility for events, communications and engagement for an alumni body of c.4,000.

