

Daniel Emmerson

Director of Global Education

Felsted School

Daniel Emmerson has worked as the Director of Global Education at Felsted School since 2014. His role encompasses senior leadership, curriculum design, financial planning, student and staff recruitment, event management and short-course delivery, with a particular focus on Felsted's Global Studies programme. Daniel is the Designated Safeguarding Lead, Mental Health First Aider and Round Square Representative responsible for overseas student exchanges and conferences. He has led trips for up to 200 students throughout the UK and he also has experience in leading smaller delegations to conferences around the world. Daniel holds a First Class Bachelor's Degree in Media Arts, a Masters Degree in International Relations and a Level 7 Diploma in Teaching English as an Additional Language. A strong believer in life-long learning, he also completed an MBA in Senior Leadership in December 2021.

