

Kate Gray

Development Director

St Albans School

Kate graduated from Bath University with a degree in International Management with Modern Languages (French) and spent the first part of her career working in the media industry. She then joined the NSPCC as part of the Full Stop campaign and led the fundraising team within the media and entertainment industries. She has subsequently worked as a Fundraising Director for several charities, specialising in major donor fundraising, for the past 20 years. Kate launched the Building Futures campaign at St Albans School when she joined in 2013 and that campaign reached its target of £8 million to support three capital projects at the School. The School has now moved on to a bursary fundraising campaign.
