

Sophie Borrillo-McLellan

Development and Alumni Relations Manager

Royal Grammar School, Worcester

Sophie is Development & Alumni Relations Manager at RGS Worcester where she is responsible for fostering and maintaining alumni relations that will build and strengthen relationships between the school and its community of former pupils, parents, staff and donors in order to maximise alumni interest in, and engagement with, the school and to support the development aims of the Foundation.

Prior to RGS, Sophie was Head of Alumni Relations at The King's School, Worcester where she implemented a successful events programme focusing on engaging the entire alumni community at all ages and stages of life.

Sophie's career path began in the arts sector. She was Head of Engagement and Creative Learning for the Malvern Theatres, a role which saw her responsible for creating and leading a strong and varied arts engagement programme of workshops talks, tours and special events, offering all members of the community an opportunity to engage further. Sophie was asked to take on a new role at Malvern, leading on Trust and Foundations applications. Sophie successfully secured the funding for a number of large arts engagement projects and was especially proud of securing funding over a number of years for hundreds of children to attend the Theatre for the first time. She was also involved in a successful capital development fundraising campaign.

