

Stephen McAuliffe

Deputy Registrar

University of Nottingham

Stephen McAuliffe is the Deputy Registrar for the University of Nottingham, operating across campuses in the UK, China and Malaysia. He leads the work around student experience and education and supports the Registrar as his deputy. His major foci at the moment are around developing systems and processes across a student record system project and leading the student life work on the development of a new campus in the city centre of Nottingham. He worked previously at the University of Birmingham as Academic Registrar and before that at the University of Essex as Academic Registrar. He is a co-opted governor of South and City College Birmingham, an FE (and HE) college of 20,000 students and is the Chair of the Academic Registrar's Council. He started his career as a Student Union President and holds BA (Hons), MSc and MBA qualifications. He also likes chocolate. A lot.
