Force Majeure

IDPE is relieved of all its obligations if any act is outside IDPE's control and impact IDPE's ability to deliver the event. This includes, but is not limited to, acts of God; government intervention, directives or policies, danger of war, fire or severe disturbances affecting IDPE, the venue or its suppliers.

In the event that IDPE is forced to cancel the face-to-conference due to a government directive, the event will be taken online with all sessions being available virtually.

Membership

IDPE school members

- The discounted package prices apply to IDPE members only. Non-members wishing to receive the members discount must join IDPE for the 2024 calendar year

Your privacy

It is thanks to the support of IDPE's corporate partners, that we have been able to grow our annual conference and support more schools working in development. We would like to share your contact details with the sponsors of the annual conference, so they can contact delegates no more than once (before or after the conference), for the sole purpose of sharing information and/or expertise that is relevant to your work in schools' development.

Please note, we will not share conference delegates' personal information with our corporate partners without your permission.

Any information collected from you when registering for the conference, will be processed in accordance with the UK Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Your personal information may be used to support the delivery of the conference, for example through the sharing of relevant information with our conference suppliers and/or for demographic analysis, as detailed in IDPE's Privacy Notice.
