

Kristina McClendon

Deputy Development Director

Magdalen College School, Oxford

Kristina McClendon will be starting as Deputy Development Director, Philanthropy at St John's College, Oxford in the new year. She is currently Deputy Development Director at Magdalen College School having previously worked in development roles in the higher education sector at the NYU Stern School of Business and Pepperdine University.

Kristina delivers all fundraising activity at MCS including the management of the regular and mid-level giving programmes and cultivation and stewardship of a portfolio of donors. Kristina is a Regional Vice President for the IDPE Thames Valley region.

#IDPEAnnualConference