

Mrs Alex Hutchinson

Head

James Allen's Girls' School

Alex read Chemistry at St Edmund Hall, Oxford and subsequently obtained her PGCE at the University of Bristol. She has over twenty years of academic and pastoral experience gained at leading girls' schools, both day and boarding. Her previous roles include Head of Science at St Mary's School, Ascot, Head of Sixth Form at both Central Newcastle High School and Wimbledon High School and Deputy Head at Woldingham School. She was subsequently Headmistress at Woldingham for 4 years, before becoming Head of JAGS in September 2020. In her spare time, Alex is a keen walker and lover of the great outdoors. She is currently President Elect of the Girls' School Association.
