

Amy Da Costa

Head of Sales

ToucanTech

Amy loves to support schools growing alumni relations and fundraising in schools and charities, through technology. Having worked for ToucanTech for the past 5 years after graduating in International Business with Spanish, she's enjoyed travelling the length and breadth of the UK (and further) to truly understand the changing landscape of building digital connections in school communities, globally.

