

Barney Northover

Partner VWV

Barney leads the education sector practice at VWV which supports school operators in the UK and internationally. The law firm is top-ranked by Chambers & Partners, lauded as a "one-stop shop" with a "stellar reputation in the market."

Barney has a broad and deep understanding of strategic opportunities in an evolving political and economic landscape. His advisory work is focused on good governance and practical strategies to help schools and education charities thrive and adapt to change.

In addition to his professional role, Barney brings insights from a trustee's and governor's perspective, having previously served on boards of both maintained schools and academies, and currently serving as a governor of The Downs Preparatory School and as a trustee of AGBIS.

He is an experienced speaker at national education conferences and is recommended for his expertise and commercial approach.
