

Gavin McLellan

Director of Development

Jordanhill School

Gavin is a fundraising director and consultant with substantial fundraising and external relations experience from 18 years across a wide spread of charities including education development, international relief and development, cancer care, arts & sports, environment, and youth employability. Currently Director of Development at Jordanhill School, Glasgow. Organisations Gavin has worked with include Christian Aid, Glasgow Life, Maggie's Centres, Aberlour Children's Charity, ProjectScotland, John Muir Trust and Jordanhill School.

He offers expertise across many areas of income generation; capital appeals, individual giving, corporate partnerships, cases for support, high level solicitation, fundraising strategy development, campaign planning, media and external relations, and high-level volunteers' management.

