

Guy Biggin

Partner, Social Purpose and Non Profits

Crowe

Guy Biggin is a Partner at national audit, tax, advisory and risk firm Crowe. He works exclusively with educational and charitable organisations and has considerable experience in audit and risk management as well as governance, trading activities, fundraising and other issues arising in the sector. His broad knowledge is coupled with a pragmatic and helpful approach. Guy acts as a sounding board, offering advice to help develop strategies to address an organisation's specific challenges. Guy is also a governor of an independent school.