

Jeremy Walker

Head Master St Peter's School

MA (Oxford) MA (University of London)

Jeremy has been Head Master since January 2019 and his role encompasses leadership of all of St Peter's with a day to day focus on St Peter's 13-18. Jeremy spent his school days as a full boarder and was educated at Sherborne School and Oxford University. Previous roles have included Principal of King's School Rochester, Headmaster of Berkhamsted Sixth and Housemaster and Head of RS and Theory of Knowledge at Ardingly College.

He is married to Harriet, a Teaching Assistant at St Peter's 2-8 and they have two children who have both attended St Peter's. His interests include sport (watching and playing) and music, building on his time as a chorister and trombonist at school. Theatre, opera and art galleries are amongst his favourite recreations and when not enjoying all that York and Yorkshire have to offer he can be found with family in Dorset, Cornwall and Greece.
