

Gordon Montgomery

Deputy Head (Partnerships & Outreach)

Oundle School

Gordon has spent over 20 years working in leading independent boarding schools at home and abroad, characteristically developing new and impactful experiences for pupils in everything from working with disabled children in SE Asia to adventure racing. In recent years he has established Partnership opportunities reaching thousands of children each year through the Oundle, Peterborough and East Northants (OPEN) Learning Partnership and delivers a variety of programmes with, and on behalf of, Imperial College London. Gordon is an innovator, Founder of ExpertEdLive (under the patronage of Prof. Lord Robert Winston) and a passionate advocate for mutuality in partnerships.