

Ron Skelton

Headteacher and CEO

Broadway Academy

Ron has been Headmaster of Broadway Academy since 2008, he was educated at Tynemouth Sixth Form College and went onto study for a B.Ed.(Hons) in Physical Education and Religious Education. Since 1991 he has taught PE and in recent years RE in four schools in Worcestershire and Birmingham.

He has gained two further degrees in Management and Leadership from Birmingham University and Buckingham University and also the National Professional Qualification for Headship.

He has been a Local Leader of Education since 2011 and worked successfully across many schools in Birmingham on school improvement, governance and other related issues. Ron is a Director (and former Chair) of Titan Trust, he sits on the Head's panel at Bishop Challoner Teaching School Alliance. He has been a member of Birmingham SACRE since 2009 and a member of the Headteachers West Midlands Ofsted Reference group since 2013.

He is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts. Ron was a Royal Marine Reserve for eight years, is still an active sportsman and has a black belt in Judo. Ron is a member of his local church where he sat on the Diocesan Church Committee for 8 years. Ron is the current Chair of the West Midlands Police Advisory Board. He has written on and spoken nationally on the subject of inter- faith and 'British Values.'