

Ros Sweeting

Chair of Trustees

The Latymer Foundation at Hammersmith

Ros Sweeting has been Chair of Trustees of the Latymer Foundation at Hammersmith since July 2017 (having been a trustee and governor since 2013). She was educated on a free place at a direct grant grammar school in South London before reading law at Birmingham University. She is a solicitor who spent most of her career as a partner in a major international law firm where she specialised in financial services disputes including money laundering and fraud. Since retiring from the law she has spent time as a non-executive director and trustee in a number of organisations in the City, the world of sport and the arts in addition to her role at Latymer.
