

Susie Baker

Director of the Waynflete Office

Magdalen College School

Susie Baker joined Magdalen College School, Oxford, in 2015 after 25 years working in communications and marketing in higher education. She worked as Director of Communications at the University of Cambridge and at Oxford Brookes University, supporting six Vice-Chancellors over that time. Susie is the author of The Challenge of Being Distinctive, published by CASE in 2017, and is a governor of Portsmouth Grammar School. Susie's role at MCS is her first job in fundraising and to date she has raised funds for a new Sixth Form Centre and for endowed and in-year bursaries.
