

Wendy Grant

Bursar

Jordanhill School

Wendy Grant is Bursar at Jordanhill School in Glasgow, Scotland's unique grant aided all through school. Jordanhill School is a charity and is the highest attaining state school in Scotland. Wendy studied Accounting and Business Law at Strathclyde university before joining M&S as store manager and project manager working across the UK and Europe managing and opening new stores. She has a diverse skill set, having also worked in Education management and participated in volunteering roles across many different sectors. She has a passion for Development in the Education sector.